

History - Toys, old and new (Year 1)

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Associated Diagram		Sticky Knowledge
toy	Something to play with	Match the labels to the tea sets   I am made of plastic. I am made of china. I am lots of bright colours. I am hand painted. I was made in a factory. Draw a toy for each of the different groups below: Grandparents  Parents  Me 		How long have toys existed? They have existed for thousands of years made from materials that were available at the time.
rich	Having lots of money			What were toys made of in Victorian times? They were mainly made of wood, paper and metal.
poor	Not having much money			What toys did rich Victorian children play with? They played with such things as clockwork train sets, rocking horses, tea sets and dolls.
Victorian	The time of Queen Victoria's reign 1837-1901			What toys did poor Victorian children play with? They played with homemade toys such as peg dolls, wooden boats and rags stuffed with sawdust to make balls or toy animals.
Wooden toys	Made from the material that comes from trees. Lots of toys were made from wood such as boats, train sets and cup and ball sets.	Draw a toy for each of the different groups below: Grandparents  Parents  Me 		What are modern toys made of? Modern toys are mainly made of plastic.
Paper toys	Some toys, like windmills were made out of paper.			Why are modern toys made out of plastic? Modern toys are mainly made of plastic because it is safer and easier to make things with.
Metal toys	Made from a strong hard and often shiny material. Toy soldiers and spinning tops were often made out of metal.			How are modern toys different? Many modern toys use electricity to work such as computer games.
Plastic toys	A man-made material that can be formed into most shapes. It is usually strong, long lasting and light weight. Most modern toys are made out of plastic.			