

Geography- Africa, Asia and Australasia

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Associated Diagram	Sticky Knowledge
Africa	One of the largest continents on Earth	Label one country in Asia, one country in Africa and one country in Australasia.   Give the 6-figure grid reference for the information centre and the coniferous tree in the bottom-right square. _____ _____	What are the main physical regions of Africa: Sahara, Sahel, Ethiopian highlands, savannah, Swahili coast, rainforest
Asia	60% of the worlds population live here		Asia: mountain systems; plateaus; plains, steppes, and deserts; freshwater environments; and saltwater environments.
			Australasia: Temperate Australasia, Central Indo-Pacific, and Eastern Indo-Pacific.
Australasia	Also known as Oceania main two countries Australia and New Zealand		What are the main cities of Africa: Lagos, Nigeria-Cairo, Egypt
Oceania	.Also called Australasia		Asia: Tokyo, Japan-Dehli, India-Beijing, China
			Australasia: Sydney, Perth, Adelaide arid	Little or no rain and too barren to support vegetation.		Name some countries that are in Africa
			Nigeria, Egypt, Ethiopia
equator	An imaginary line around the middle of the planet		Name some countries that are in Asia
			China, Japan, India
location	A particular position		Name some countries that are in Australasia
			Australia, New Zealand
		Finish these words to do with grid references...
		Lat.....latitude
		Longit.....longitude	